

Be it so known that the bearers of this charter, having delivered the Northern reaches of the Greenbelt from the scourge of banditry, having done no small amount of work in the exploration of said land, and having culled the land of hostile monsters and indigenous hazards, are hereby granted the right to rule. The nature and laws of rule are theirs to define and the wellbeing of this new nation is theirs to protect.

In accordance for providing a stable nation to the south of Brebov, let there be a generous bestowal of funds, support, and advice provided to this fledgling nation as a token of Restov and Brebov's goodwill, such that future relations between kingdoms might be mutually beneficial.

So witnessed on this 3rd day of Desnus by the watchful eye of the Lordship of Restov and by the authority granted by Lord Moleski Surtova, current Regent of the Dragonscale Throne.
