Lord Baron of Varnhold

Maegar Varn

I bid you greetings from Varnhold. Your letter was received with great delight in our hall. My esteemed diplomat Sybil feels this should be a formal letter opening negotiations between our two little nations, but I'm a more plain-spoken man.

To be as upfront as possible, with so much stacked against us in these lands, it is only prudent to work together as much as we can. As we both have savage beasts pounding along our borders why add to the troubles by picking fights with our civilized neighbors?

I look forward to the Harvest Festival in Rova and Varnhold will be delighted to attend. My magister, warden, and of course diplomat will also be there. I'm sure Sybil can't wait to talk borders and trade so keep a conference table open!

Maegar Varn - Lord of Varnhold
